What's happening in our family?

We are all healthy and happy.

Fond memories of high school:

Too many to mention - they are all fond memories

Career status:

Working for Capital One on the integration team. We are now buying banks and you can imagine the challenges facing our industry right now.

How I spend my time:

Family time is precious and the top priority. My job is demanding and exciting and I balance the energy from the work with reading, traveling, exercising and enjoying time with family and friends.

Comments for classmates:

Lessons learned since 1969:

Stay true to your values and core beliefs and you will always be able to look yourself in the mirror and smile.

Be present in everything you do and in every interaction, life is precious

It does not matter what career choices you make - give it 100% and you will be successful

Do not ever stop learning and growing and evolving
