

Tom Krall

Every reunion reminds us of how far we've traveled and how much we've grown. Every reunion reminds us that times change, we change, and our lives change, moving in unexpected directions, bringing sorrows and joys we could not anticipate. The first sorrow of our collective lives was the loss of a classmate, so now every reunion is a time to remember the one who did not make this journey with us - Tom Krall.

He has missed the sorrows and the joys that life has to offer. Our only source of consolation is that for every LaSalle graduate from the class of '69, TOM REMAINS FOREVER YOUNG, FOREVER SMILING, FOREVER LAUGHING, FOREVER ENJOYING THE MOMENT. Until our final reunion, Tom, we remember you and we salute you.

David Campagna - Tom we definitely miss you, I remember many Christmas's after your death when I would return home to CR to do some last minute Christmas shopping. I would always run into your mother in the stores. She was always glad to see me but it was hard on her as well because she knew we were class mates and my stage of life would remind her of where you would have been. She really loved you so much and definitely missed you. We shall connect again.
